

DSBN Creed Accommodation Request Form

Date:

The District School Board of Niagara values diversity and inclusion. We support these values with policies and procedures to accommodate the diverse creed-based needs of students. This form will help your child’s school to support your creed-based accommodation request(s). This form can be completed by families of students (or by students age 16 or older). Families may prefer to call their child’s home school and have a conversation about creed-accommodation with the principal.

Please complete this form at the start of the school year or as soon after as possible and submit it to your home school principal.
