INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGES

For Elementary-aged students ELKP to Grade 8

International Language instruction is provided to all elementary children living in the Niagara Region whose parents/guardians would like them to learn a language other than English or French. The programs are offered after school and on weekends at various schools and locations in the Niagara Region. Please call the phone number listed with the language offered to see where it is held and how to register your child for the class. Classes are held September to June and students can register any time through the school year.
